

REPORT

Poshak Pakwada Celebration.

The NSS volunteers of Providence Women's College NSS units 116 and 15 collectively organised programs aiming at community service on account of Poshan Pakwada celebrations as instructed by the Regional Directorate. The volunteers visited "Hidayath" an old age home located at Feroke, Kozhikode and served self prepared meals to the inmates on 22 nd of March 2021. A group of 20 NSS volunteers strictly adhering to covid protocols visited the old age home with home cooked food and served it with their own hands to spread the joy of service. The volunteers reached the old age home at 11:30 AM on March 22 nd and spent time with the inmates till 2:PM. The endeavor by the volunteers were much appreciated and applauded. The volunteers also organised games and competitions to entertain the inmates.

