The PROVIDENCE WOMEN'S COLLEGE, MALAPARAMBA, CALICUT, KERALA and M.E.S. PONNANI COLLEGE, PONNANI PO, MALAPPURAM, KERALA, agree to promote academic cooperation between both institutions, in areas of mutual interest, by means of:

1. Joint development of research projects.
2. Joint organization of academic, scientific and cultural events.
3. Interchange of information and manpower and of academic publications.
4. Developing scientific temper among students.

SECTION 2 - OBJECTIVES

Both institutes agree to develop the following collaborative activities in the area of mutual interest, on a basis of equality and reciprocity.

Faculty exchange

- The exchange of faculty to the mutual benefit of both institutions.
- Collaboration in teaching, research and consultancy studies in the field of mutual interest.
- The exchange of academic material and publications.
- Conducting lectures.
- Faculty collaboration for the purposes of curriculum development and review, attending of programmes, upgrading of teaching and research skill.
- For participating in seminars, symposiums and other types of academic discussions.
- Co-guiding of postgraduate students.

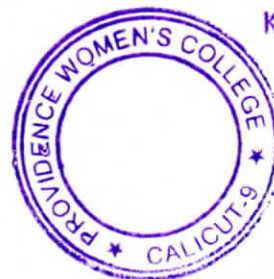

A specific plan will be worked out for each activity; setting forth detailed arrangement for collaboration. Terms and conditions for each visit or an assignment for such exchange will be worked out between the institutes.

Providence Women's College, Malaparamba and MES Ponnani College agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study.

- Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- His/her programme/course of the study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "intern" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue letter to that effect.
- If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the research performance and issue letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.
- If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.
- To avail travel expenses, students can apply for existing funding programs at their respective home institution.
- The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

Other Areas

The institutes agree upon:

- To exchange information on research and education programs
- To exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programs
- To jointly organize short-term continuing education programs on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein
- To jointly organize seminar, conferences or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate there in

- Use laboratory facilities in specific cases for limited period. Both partner institutions agree that detailed terms and conditions that guide each activity identified above will be determined separately and agreed upon by the two institutions. These terms shall include a technical description of the proposed activity, financial agreements and person(s) responsible for its implementation.

SECTION 3 – IMPLEMENTATION

Each institution shall appoint one member of its teaching/research faculty to coordinate the programme on its behalf. Further, a coordination committee consisting of a programme coordinator from the side of SJC and MESPO will periodically review and identify ways to strengthen cooperation between the two institutions.

Both partner institutions agrees that this MoU doesn't mandatorily hold any legal provision or abide any legal rights to partner institutions as part of the conditions mentioned in the purpose and objectives of MoU.

SECTION 4 – INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Ownership of any intellectual property (including but not limited to confidential information, know how, patents, copyrights, design rights, rights relating computer software and any other industrial or intellectual property rights) developed jointly during the course of this MoU shall be vested in both institutes to this Memorandum.

SECTION 5 – CONFIDENTIALITY

This MoU and all documents and information provided by one Party to the other Party under, or in connection with the negotiation of this MoU or any subsequent contractual undertakings shall be treated as confidential (Confidential Information). The Confidential Information shall not be used except for the purposes for which it was made available and the Confidential Information shall not be disclosed to any other person without the prior written consent of

It is run by the Diocese of Thanjavur Tamil Nadu Province to fulfill the cherished dream of its Founder, President Most Rev. Dr. M. Devadass' Ambrose D.D., L.S.S., S.T.D; desire was to educate the students of in and around Thanjavur. This Institution is located in the heart of the city of Thanjavur and surrounded by eco-friendly ambience. The motto of the college is "We impact holistic education with Ethics which means ensures Excellence in life and career. Our College is affiliated to Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli.

Whereas

- b.) Providence Women's College Calicut Kerala India Providence Women's College, Calicut, is one of the largest higher education centers for women in the state of Kerala. It was established in 1952 by the Sisters of Apostolic Carmel, as a noble initiative to spread the message of empowerment through education among the women folk in the Malabar region. After the initial years of functioning in the premises of Providence High School, Calicut, the college shifted to its own building atop the picturesque Florican Hill. Providence College is the result of the collective effort of a committed group headed by our founder Principal, Mother Gabrielle. It was affiliated to the Madras University in 1952 and later on it became part of Kerala University in 1958 and finally it was brought under the University of Calicut in 1968. The college provides instruction in 7 post graduate courses, 14 under graduate courses and one integrated course. 6 UGC approved Add on Courses, 7 Certificate Courses and 4 Diploma Courses are offered by the college along with the main stream of academic instruction. Along with the A+ grade awarded by NAAC, the college has also been granted the status of CPE – College with Potential for Excellence by the UGC. The academic exercises of the college are well supported by the non-curricular initiatives. The qualified teachers, the vibrant students, the enlightened leadership and the provision for manifestation of talents of the students constitute the fabric of Providence Women's College. Quality of life coupled with the cultivation of healthy life attitudes have been the main agenda of the management.
