REPORT ON WEBINAR CAREER PROSPECTS FOR IR GRADUATES.

DATE: 28th November 2021

TIME: 10 am morning

An international webinar was hosted by the Department of Politics and International Relations in order to illuminate the minds of young students on the topic “Career Prospects for IR Graduates”. The webinar was conducted via online platform Google Meet on 28th November 2021, Sunday at 10am morning. The Chief Guest of our event was Sir Veeresh Kanduri, Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MoFA) Taiwan Fellow and a Visiting Fellow at the Institute of International Relations (IIR) Taiwan Center for Security Studies in Taipei.

He is also associated with Forum for Integrated National Security (FINS) in India as a Young National Security Fellow and Pacific Forum’s Young Leader Program. Previously, Veeresh worked for Tel Aviv-based MAX-Security’s Intelligence Division as an Intelligence Analyst-China Specialist and Pangoal Institution in Beijing as a Research Assistant. He graduated from Peking University’s Yenching Academy as a Yenching Scholar in Politics and International Relations and also holds a graduate degree in Development Studies from Tata Institute of Social Science. Science. Veeresh is also trained as a Mechanical Engineer. His engagements endure in understanding China’s expanding economic aspirations and geopolitical assertiveness in the international order in general and its implications for India and Indo-Pacific security in particular. At MAX-Security, as an Intelligence analyst, he is specialized in open-source intelligence and imagery analysis concerning the geopolitical and strategic developments in the Indo-Pacific region, with a particular focus on India and China.

We started with a beautiful prayer song by Fathima Shurook. Mushrifa invited Nayan Therasa for welcome speech. Jasmine introduced our honorable Chief Guest Sir Veeresh Kanduri to share his views and thoughts on the discipline of IR. He gave us a clear idea on the subject by giving examples on day today affairs and political issues. He enabled us to understand the outlook on how the world works socially and how we can study and implement our knowledge on the discipline of IR. He enlightened us on how to choose our career paths and shared with us his journey through life from an engineer to the domain of IR. By the end Sir helped us in clearing our doubts, they by giving us a clear idea on our life as IR students. After that Ambili Ma'am gave the vote of thanks, there by ending the session at 11am. The session was an influential and knowledgeable one that helped the students on their career path for the future.
