REPORT OF SEMINAR AZADI KA AMRIT MAHOSHTAV

DATE: 14th March 2022

TIME: 10 am morning

A seminar was hosted by the Department of Politics and International Relations in order to enlighten the young minds of students on the topic “Forgotten Women Freedom Fighters in Kerala and Parliamentary Politics”. The seminar was conducted offline in AV Hall, Providence Women’s College on 14th March 2022, Monday at 10am in the morning. Our Chief Guest of the talk was Dr. Sujin babu, Head Department of History, Mount Carmel College Bangalore.

We started our program with a beautiful prayer song by Abani S Chembatta. Fathima Shurook invited Fathima Shahzadha for the welcome address. The presidential address was by our principal Dr Sister Ashmitha. Our principal Dr Sister Ashmitha and our honourable Chief Guest Dr Sujin Babu was invited to hand over the Memorandum of Understanding which was signed between the Department of Politics and International Relations, Providence Women’s College, Calicut and Mount Carmel College, Bangalore. Shurook then invited Gayathri to present the token of love to our Guest Dr Sujin Babu which was a beautiful creation by Gayathri herself. Archana Parvathi was invited for the introduction of our Chief Guest.

The seminar was well conducted. Dr Sujin babu shared his wide range of knowledge on the topic. He made us understand about many women personalities that had played very important role in our freedom struggle. He took the chance to remind all of us about the faces that had been forgotten by us, the faces that upheld their life forever for our nation and the upliftment of women. The session was highly informative. The session successfully came to an end with the vote of thanks lend by Ambili Thomas, Head of Department of Politics and International relations.
