REMNANTS OF A SEPARATION.

Date: 30TH April 2022

Time: 10am to 11am

A webinar was hosted by the department of politics and International Relations of Providence Women's College and the department of History of Mount Carmel College, Bangalore on 30th April 2022. The webinar was conducted on Microsoft Teams. Chief guest of the day was Aanchal Malhotra, Author, oral historian and co-founder of the Museum of Material Memory. She shared her book "Remnants of a Separation".

We started our program with a prayer. Wonderful conversation was led by Aanchal Malhotra. She shared about the book and also about her experience while writing this book. The book had specified the partition of India and Pakistan. The struggle of the people at that time. Then Nishana (lecturer of Providence college) delivered a vote of thanks and the session came to an end. The program was attended by Dr. Suma Singh (Dean of Humanities), Dr. Sujin Babu (HoD of dept. history), Mr. Muhammad Niyas Ashraf (secretary of History Association) Members of History Association, Ambili Thomas (HoD of IR) and the students both Providence Woman's College and Mount Carmel College Bangalore.

The session was beautifully conducted by both the departments. The session was very informative and catchy.
