1. The two educational institutions will:
  - a) Cooperate in the exchange of information relating to their activities in teaching and research in fields of mutual interests;
  - b) Promote appropriate joint research projects and joint courses of study in the field of Psychology and research.
  - c) Endeavour to encourage students and staff to spend periods of time in the host institution. The exchange of students will be dependent on the execution of a formal student exchange agreement prior to commencement of this activity.
  - d) Conduct short courses, as mutually agreed in writing between the parties prior to commencement of this activity.
  - e) Work cooperatively for developing and revising regulations and curricula of the existing academic programmes of both institutions as and when required.
  - f) Facilitate research activities, publication and consultancy between both institutions.
  - g) Mutual Collaboration of both institutions in a continuous quality improvement process.
2. The aim of the Memorandum of Understanding shall be to achieve a broad balance in the respective contributions and benefits of the collaboration, and this shall be subject to periodic review by both institutions.
3. In the implementation of specific cooperative programs, a written agreement covering all relevant aspects including funding and the obligations to be undertaken by each party will be negotiated, mutually agreed and formalized in writing, prior to the commencement of the program.

The agreement will take effect from the date of its signing and shall be valid for an unlimited period from that date unless sooner terminated, revoked or modified by mutual written agreement between the two parties and may be extended by mutual written agreement.

Either party may terminate the agreement at any time during the term by the provision of three months written notice to the other party.

REPORT

The department of Psychology, Providence Women's College, Calicut signed a three year MOU with MES college, Marampally. So on behalf of this MOU we collaborately organized a program named UDAAN on 5th December 2022. The program was in a hybrid mode. The main attraction of the program is that a motivational talk and live cake making session by a child with Down syndrome. The session was so interesting and lively. These kinds of program will also help to spread mental health literacy among public.
