Details of Industrial Visit

The Department of commerce of Providence Women's college had organized an industrial visit on 18 June, 2022 to Benchmark Tea Factory in Ooty, Tamil Nadu. The visit was organized by HOD of commerce Ninikala ma'am. And Shiji ma'am was the co-ordinator faculty for the industrial visit. We started travelling from the college campus at 5.30 am in bus.

Company Profile

Benchmark Tea Factory

"Benchmark" a Nilgiri tea company founded by "Mr. N. Devarajan" and now managed by "Mr. Rajesh Devarajan" who has involved himself as a most experienced tea maker in variety of Teas.

Benchmark Tea Factory tour is an informative tourism with the aim to make awareness about tea. One can learn about health benefits of teas where manufacturing process is verified. A part of these a chocolate factory, Tea plantation visit, Eucalyptus distillation and sales counters are also being placed inside the factory the view from the factory is scenic.

"Benchmark is the only company with the concept of single origin nilgiri tea. Their tea and garden are fresh and also unblended tea is the only highest hallmark of Benchmark Tea it offers a unique taste of unblended variety of nilgiri tea.

Process of Tea Manufacturing

Tea manufacture is the process of transformation of freshly plucked green tea leaves to black tea. There are several distinctive processes that take place in the manufacture of black teas.

Plucking : The green leaf is harvested on a regular basis at intervals ranging from 5 days to 8 days from each field. The plucking of the soft two leaves and the bud is generally undertaken by well trained women, because of the agility of feminine hands. The manufacture begins from the time leaf is plucked in the field, and to ensure it retains its freshness, the leaf is sent to factories from the fields three to four times a day.

Withering : - No sooner it is received at the factory, the leaf is weighted and spread on troughs. withering is a process, where conditioned air is circulated between the leaves, initially to remove any surface moisture and thereafter to concentrate and Chemically breakdown the tea juices. It takes 10 hours to 14 hours for the physical and chemical changes to take place and bring the leaf to soft and rubbery condition suitable for the next stage of manufacture.

Rolling :- The purpose of rolling is primarily to break up the leaf cells into compartments and to mix up the chemical components of the leaves with the enzymes. Various type of rollers are used to achieve this objective. The first roll is often very gentle and known as the 'pre-conditioning roll'. The main action of the pre-conditioning roll has been found to be the gentle expression of the leaf juice on to the surface of the twisted particles. Subsequent rolling is programmed to achieve a thorough breakdown of the leaf cells. A considerable amount of heat is generated by friction during the rolling process, but care must be exercised to ensure that temperature does not exceed 35°C because undesirable chemical and enzyme reactions could occur at higher temperature.

Fermentation :- Once the leaf is sifted through the roll Breaker, it is spread out on an even surface and left to allow oxidation. The Process of fermentation represents a series of complex chemical reactions which begin at the moment when the leaf is broken in the rollers. The breaking up of cells which causes the mixing up of the enzymes with the other chemical compounds within the cell results in a number of reactions; the most important being the oxidation of Polyphenols. An additional reaction that occurs during fermentation is the formation of some flavour compounds.

Drying :- The Process of firing removes most of the leaves moisture and stops fermentation by destroying the enzymes. Further the flavour of the tea is 'balanced' during firing because some of the less desirable low boiling compounds are removed thus accentuating the presence of more useful higher boiling compounds.

Grading :- The dried tea leaves are sorted into particle sizes by sending them through sifters that sift them through different meshes. This helps to categorise the teas into the different grades - Dust, Pekoe, BOP etc.

Packing :- Teas are very hygroscopic and rapidly absorb moisture. When sufficient quantities of teas are collected, they are either packed into plywood tea chests or packs of various forms for direct distribution.
