Activity: Talk on Goods and Service Tax
No: of Students Participated: 20

The Department of Economics had organized a talk on Goods and Service Tax for local community on 28th July 2017 at the community centre of Providence Women's College during the inaugural ceremony of Charka Centre. The talk was given by Sr. Sheeba Andrews, Head of the Department of Economics, Providence Women's College. 20 Students from third year Economics had participated in the session. The session focused on how goods and service tax works, its benefits and drawbacks, how GST will prevent cascading of taxes by providing a comprehensive input tax credit mechanism across the entire supply chain etc... There was an interactive session as well to clarify the doubts on Goods and Services. The talk was successful in achieving its aim of giving awareness to common people about Goods and Service Tax.
