8. Termination:

The termination of the employment between the Employee and the Firm is determined by this clause only. The Firm and the Employee shall be strictly abiding by the terms and conditions of this clause.

- a) The Employee hereby agrees and consents that the nature of the industry and the character of the work demands a condition that the Employee shall not have any right to unilaterally terminate the employment with the Firm. The Employee may request the Management with a minimum two months written notice for the termination/resignation from employment. The Management reserves the right to approve or reject the same, and under no circumstance the Management shall have any obligation to necessarily approve the request for the termination of the employment.
 - b) The Firm shall have the right to terminate the Employee's employment by serving one month's notice or payment of one-month gross salary in lieu of one-month notice at the sole prerogative of the Management.
 - c) Upon the termination of the employment, the Employee shall immediately return to the Management all the properties of the Firm and Management, including the firm computers, laptops, mobile phones, accessories, car, petrol expense card, other credit cards, keys and documents and letters of whatsoever nature or description the Employee may have in any way related to the Firm's business.
 - d) The Management reserves the right to terminate the employment without notice in the event of any act of gross misconduct, fraud, breach of trust, cheating, disloyalty, commission of any act involving moral turpitude, or any act of indiscipline or inefficiency or for loss of confidence etc. or serious breach of the terms of this agreement. Such termination for unsatisfactory service / behavior will be without prejudice to the right of the Management to pursue suitable disciplinary action also, if necessary.
 - e) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Clause relating to Confidentiality, Data Protection, Non-compete & non-Solicit obligations, Notices, firm property and the return or transfer to the Firm, governing law and jurisdiction shall survive any termination of employment.
9. Employment policies: You agree to abide by all current and future policies, rules and procedures established by Legacy Partners. We will issue employee notifications outlining our policies and procedures in employment from time to time. Please feel free to ask for clarification for anything you are not sure of.

10. Confidentiality: The Employee having the access to /control of/knowledge about the confidential information hereby agrees and undertakes not to disclose such information to any person against the interest of the Firm or the Management.

- a) Confidential Information: The Firm and the Employee agree and understand that "Confidential Information" means and includes – any information or material which is proprietary to the Firm or the Management, whether or not owned or developed by the Firm, which is not generally known other than by the Firm, and which the Employee may obtain through any direct or indirect contact with the Firm, regardless of whether specifically identified as confidential or proprietary. Confidential Information shall include any information provided by the Firm concerning the business, technology, and information of the Firm and any third party with which the Firm deals, including but not limited to business records and plans, educational materials, project reports and formats, trade secrets, technical data, product ideas, contracts, financial information, pricing structure, discounts, computer programs and listings, copyrights, patents and intellectual property, inventions, sales leads, strategic alliances, partners and customer and client lists, confidential data and information of clients and associate. The nature of the information and the manner of disclosure are such that a reasonable person would understand it to be confidential.

Confidential Information does not include – matters of public knowledge that result from the disclosure by the Firm, information rightfully received by the Employee from a third party without a duty of confidentiality, information disclosed by operation of law, information disclosed by the Employee with the prior written consent of the Firm and any other information that both parties agree in writing as non-confidential.

Any information known only to a few people to whom it might be of commercial interest and not generally known to the public is not public knowledge; a combination of two or more parts of the Confidential Information is also not a public knowledge merely because each part is separately available to the public.

- b) Protection of Confidential Information: The Employee understands and acknowledges that Confidential Information has been developed or obtained by the Firm by the investment of significant time, effort and expense, and that the confidential information is a valuable, unique and special asset of the Firm, which provides significant competitive advantage to the Firm, and needs to be protected from improper disclosure.

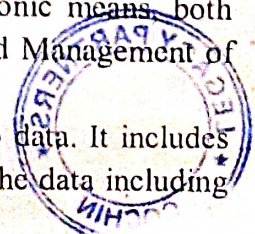

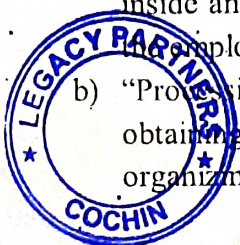

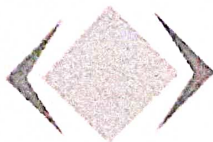

c) The Employee hence undertakes and agrees that –

- i. No Disclosure – The Employee will hold the Confidential Information in confidence and will not disclose the Confidential Information to any person or entity without the prior written consent of the Firm.
- ii. No Copying/Modifying – The Employee will not copy or modify the Confidential Information without the prior written consent of the Firm.
- iii. Unauthorized Use – The Employee shall promptly advise the Firm if the Employee becomes aware of any possible unauthorized disclosure or use of the Confidential Information.
- iv. Unauthorized use of Confidential Information – Injunction: If it appears that the Employee has disclosed (or has threatened to disclose) Confidential Information in violation of this agreement, the Firm shall be entitled to restrain the Employee from disclosing the Confidential Information in whole or part. The Firm shall not be prohibited by this provision from pursuing other remedies, including a claim for losses and damages as well as prosecuting the Employee under the criminal laws.
- v. Return of Confidential Information: Upon the termination of the employment and upon the written request of the Firm during the period of employment, the Employee shall return to the Firm all the materials including electronic materials containing the Confidential Information. The Employee shall also deliver to the Firm written statements signed by the Employee certifying that all materials have been returned to the Firm upon the termination and within such time prescribed in the request made during the employment.
- vi. Tenure: The Employee shall protect and continue to protect the Confidential Information received, obtained, accrued or acquired by him during the course of this agreement, indefinitely, unless and until the Firm agrees to release the Confidential Information through a written notice.

11. Data Protection:

- a) The Firm holds personal data and sensitive personal data relating to the Employee. The Firm will process and may disclose such data and the Employee hereby consents to the processing and disclosure of such data, both manually and by electronic means, both inside and, where necessary, for the purposes of the administration and Management of the employment and/or the Firm's business.
- b) "Processing" includes anything that can be done with or in relation to data. It includes obtaining, recording, holding the data and carrying out operations on the data including organizing, erasing or disclosing.

- c) "Sensitive personal data" includes, but is not limited to, medical information for the purpose of the employment and fitness to carry out the employment assignments, duties and data regarding sex, marital status, race, ethnic origin or disability for the purpose of monitoring to ensure equality of opportunity within the Firm.
- d) The Employee hereby acknowledges that the Employee may have access to personal and sensitive personal data during the employment in the Firm relating to other employees, trainees or other staffs, and the Employee hereby agrees to comply with the Firm's data protection policy at all times.

12. Conflicting Employment:

The Employee agrees that, during the term of his/her employment with the Firm, the Employee will not engage in any other employment, occupation, consulting, training, coaching or other business activity or provide any services to or otherwise be involved with any person or body corporate directly or indirectly whether through partnership or as a shareholder, joint venture partner, collaborator, consultant or agent or in any other manner, without prior written consent of the Firm.

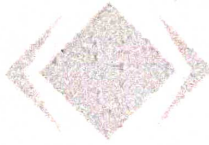

13. Indemnity:

The Employee undertakes and agrees to indemnify and make harmless the Firm from any and all third-party claims, demands, liabilities, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, cost and expenses resulting from the breach of any conditions of this agreement.

14. Dispute Resolution

In the event of any dispute or difference between the parties, hereto, such dispute or difference shall be resolved amicably by mutual consultation. If such resolution is not possible, then, the unresolved dispute or difference shall be referred to a sole independent arbitrator appointed by the Firm. The arbitration proceedings shall be in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The costs of arbitration shall be shared evenly between both parties. If any legal action is necessary to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney fees, costs and expenses.

15. Conditional Offer of Employment:

Your employment will be subject to the following conditions:

- a) To furnish copies of certificates of your qualifications and experiences.
- b) Receiving satisfactory references and certificates from your previous employers, if any, as regards to your satisfactory performances and conduct.
- c) Submitting certificates for proof of your age and address.
