EXAMINATION REGULATIONS

Taking your ACCA exams is part of your journey towards becoming an ACCA professional accountant and we therefore expect you to act in a professional manner when taking your exams.

The following regulations apply to students sitting paper based and computer-based exams, as well as those taking internally-assessed ACCA courses.

1. You are required to adhere at all times to the examination regulations and guidelines below. If you are found to be in breach of any of these regulations or fail to adhere to the guidelines below, you may become liable to disciplinary action which could result in your removal from the student register.
2. You are required to comply in all respects with any instructions issued by the exam supervisor/s, invigilator/s and any ACCA personnel before, during and at the conclusion of an exam.
3. You may not attempt to deceive the exam supervisor/s, invigilator/s and any ACCA personnel by giving false or misleading information.
4. You are not permitted during the exam to possess, use or attempt to use any written materials except those expressly permitted in the guidelines below. These are known as 'unauthorised materials'.
5. You are not permitted to use or attempt to use during the course of the exam any communication, photographic or electronic device other than an electronic calculator (where permitted). These are known as 'unauthorised items'.
6. If you breach exam regulation 4 and the 'unauthorised materials' are relevant to the syllabus being examined, and/or you use or attempt to use any unauthorised item or items in breach of regulation 5 above it will be assumed that you intended to use it or them to gain an unfair advantage in the exam. In any subsequent disciplinary proceedings, you will have to prove that you did not breach regulations 4 and/or 5 to gain an unfair advantage in the exam.
7. You (irrespective of if you are a licensed weapon holder) are not allowed to attend your exam with a weapon. If you are found to have a weapon in your possession you will be excluded from the exam without any reimbursement.

9. You may not engage in any improper conduct designed to assist you in your exam attempt or provide any improper assistance to any other exam entrant in their exam attempt.
10. If you are sitting paper-based examinations, you are not permitted to remove either your candidate answer booklet(s) or your question paper from the exam room. All candidate answer booklets remain the property of ACCA. If you are taking a computer-based exam you are not permitted to remove any working papers issued to you. All exam working papers remain the property of ACCA. You must not copy, photograph or reproduce in any manner exam questions. You are also strictly prohibited from distributing or seeking to exploit for commercial gain unauthorised copies of exam questions.
11. You must not seek to gain an unfair advantage in the exam (whether by breaching an exam regulation or otherwise).
12. Candidates must not talk to, or attempt to communicate with, other candidates during the exam under any circumstances.
13. You must not attempt to obtain and/or obtain your examination results prior to ACCA's official published results release date.

EXAMINATION GUIDELINES

Before the Examination

What do you need for entry to the examination?

- This examination attendance docket
- An official means of photographic identification, such as your valid passport, driving licence, national identity card or biometric residence permit. If you are unable to prove your identity your examination attempt may not be marked.

Please note that you are only permitted to attempt the examination(s) shown and chosen by you. For each examination listed, you can only attend the examination centre allocated.

Your allocated desk

If you are sitting a paper-based exam: You must ensure that you are sitting at the correct desk number. Please note that if you are taking more than one paper, your desk number may vary from paper to paper and if you do not sit at the correct desk your candidate answer booklet(s) may be rendered invalid.

If you are sitting a computer-based exam: You will be assigned a designated desk during the check in process before each examination.

What can you take to your desk?

- Examination attendance docket
- Official means of photographic identification
- Rulers, pens, pencils and an eraser
- Geometrical instruments
- A noiseless, cordless pocket calculator which may be programmable but which must not have a printout or graphic/word display facility in any language
- A small bottle of water or soft drink, all labels removed. No other drinks or food are permitted.
- Black ballpoint pen

No unauthorised items or materials are permitted on or about your person or at your desk except a mobile phone (or communication device of any type), smartwatch or other wearable technology, which must be declared, switched off and placed in a clear plastic bag and stowed underneath your chair or stored as directed by the exam centre staff.

Your Examination

For paper-based exams only:

- You must ensure that you have been given the correct question paper by comparing the front cover of your question paper with the paper designation code on this document.
- You must not open your question paper or start writing in your candidate answer booklet until you are instructed to do so by the supervisor
- When instructed by the supervisor you must complete the following details on the front of your candidate answer booklet in black ballpoint pen:
 - your registration number and name
 - your desk number
 - your centre/hall code number
 - your exam paper number and version (where appropriate)

For computer-based exams only:

- Before the examination start time, you will be presented with a holding screen which will display your name and the examination you are attempting. Please check the holding screen for your name and ensure the correct examination is displayed. In addition please also check the variant/standard (if applicable) is correct by comparing the examination displayed on the holding screen with the examination designation code on this document.
- You must not touch your keyboard/mouse until you are instructed to do so by the supervisor.
- You must not commence your examination until you are instructed to do so by the supervisor.

During the examination

For paper-based exams only:

- You must use only black ballpoint pen to complete your answers in your candidate answer booklet(s).
- Before the end of the exam you must indicate the question numbers you have attempted in the space provided at the top of each page within the booklet(s). Please note that no extra time is allowed for this at the end of the examination.
- It is in your direct interest to show your rough workings for each question in your candidate answer booklet(s). This will help the marker accurately assess your performance in the examination. You must also start each question on a new page and indicate the question number in the space provided at the top of the page.

For computer-based exams only:

- It is in your direct interest for each question answered to show your rough workings on the word processing or spreadsheet application provided within the CBE exam. This will help the marker accurately assess your performance in the examination.
- Any answers recorded on the working paper (in paper format) will not form part of your exam answers and will not be marked.

After the examination

For paper-based exams only: Your candidate answer booklet(s), question paper and any unused working books will be collected by an invigilator/supervisor. You are not permitted to remove any of these items from the exam room. Your worked candidate answer booklet(s) and answers will remain the property of ACCA and will not be returned to you.

For computer-based exams only: Your working paper will be collected by an invigilator/supervisor. No working paper is to be removed from the exam room. Your computer-based exam answers and individual working paper will remain the property of ACCA and will not be returned to you.

What will the docket be used for?

- It will ensure your entry to the examination.
- It will be used to record your attendance at the examination.
- It will be retained by the centre supervisor after your last examination in the session.

What else do you need to know?

- Your examination entry fees are not refundable or transferable.
- The supervisor will not allow you to enter the examination room after the first hour of the examination
- Ensure that you arrive on time for your examination(s) as you will not be given extra time if you are late.
- You must pay close attention to the supervisor's announcements at the beginning of each examination. This will include important information relating to safety and security within the examination room.
- You are not permitted to leave the exam room permanently until the end of the session. For the avoidance of doubt, this also applies before the exam has started if any question papers have been distributed (applicable to paper-based exams only) or if you have been seated at your designated computer workstation (applicable to computer-based exams only).
- If you are required to leave the exam room for a short period at any time, you will be escorted by an invigilator
- At the end of the examination, candidates must stop completing their exam when instructed to do so by the supervisor. Do not then leave your desk until the supervisor permits you to do so.
- You must leave all bags and briefcases at a point indicated by the supervisor. This includes mobile phones, tablets, pagers etc. ACCA cannot accept responsibility for the theft, loss of, or damage to, any valuables or unauthorised items left in the examination venue, therefore you are advised not to bring any valuable or unauthorised items to the examination centre.
- ACCA does not implement a dress code for its examinations. However, you should dress for your examination(s) in a manner which will not cause offence to your fellow candidates.
- Before, during and after your examination, you must not behave in a manner which will distract your fellow candidates. Inappropriate behaviour will be reported to ACCA by the supervisor.
- No smoking is allowed in the examination room.
- You must not make any additional markings on this examination attendance docket.
- You must ensure that you familiarise yourself with the fire exits.

Results release

Examination results will be available on myACCA and by email and text message. Please check www.accaglobal.com/examresults for details of when these will be published.

Note to candidates sitting at special examination centres

If you are sitting at a designated Special Centre (for the avoidance of doubt this does not refer to those centres for students requiring reasonable adjustments), please pay all invigilation and accommodation fees directly to the local supervisor before the date of the examination. If you are unable to sit the examination for which you have entered, please advise the local supervisor in good time and pay whatever fees may be required.

APPOINTMENT LETTER

Ms. Aparna M,
Nandhanam House, Kettilparamba,
P.O Chevayur, Kozhikode,
Kerala - 673017

Dear Ms. Aparna M,

Congratulations!

We are delighted to appoint you on the role of 'Associate Engineer' at M/s UL Technology Solutions Private limited (hereinafter ULTS/The Company), a subsidiary of ULCCS LTD. The position will be based out of Kozhikode, Kerala.

At the ULTS, a plethora of opportunities are awaiting you to kickstart your career. We would like you to go through the below sections to familiarise yourself with the terms of your appointment.

1. Date of Joining

You shall be required to join our organisation on October 14, 2019 by accepting this offer and your appointment shall be effective from then onward.

This offer is valid for 3 days from the date of this letter. You are requested to send an email to campusconnect@ults.in to confirm your joining. If we are not in receipt of your acceptance email on time, or if you haven't joined ULTS by the aforementioned date after accepting this offer, this offer will be deemed to have been declined by you, unless otherwise communicated to you by ULTS in writing.

2. Compensation and Benefits

Your monthly and annual compensation is detailed in Annexure 1.

You are eligible for a one-time relocation allowance at the time of joining. Your relocation allowances include one-week accommodation by the company. You can also claim reimbursement of three-tier air-conditioned train/bus ticket for the shortest route to Kozhikode from your permanent residing location by producing journey tickets.

3. Probation

Your employment is subject to satisfactory completion of one-year probationary period. The confirmation of your employment will be based on assessment of your conduct, demeanor, abilities and performance. In case you intend to leave our services during the probation period, you need to give one month's notice. Also, ULTS can end your services by giving one month's notice or salary thereof.
