The Department of Physics organised paper presentation competition in connection with Nobel prize 2018. Vyshna Suresh, Sariga C M, Aryananda and Maneesha of PG I year presented papers.

The poster is set against a background of a starry night sky transitioning into a sunset at the bottom. It features two logos at the top: on the left, a logo with a stylized 'P' and an atom symbol, labeled 'Bhautik '19 DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS'; on the right, the crest of Providence Women's College with a banner that reads 'THY LIGHT WE SEE LIGHT'. The text on the poster reads: 'DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS PROVIDENCE WOMEN'S COLLEGE' followed by a separator line of 'x's, 'presents', 'in connection with Nobel prize in Physics 2018', and the main title 'Paper presentation competition' in large bold letters. Another separator line of 'x's follows, leading to the date and time 'ON 04-10-2018 AT 1:30 PM' and the venue 'VENUE: PHYSICS LAB'.

UNION 2018-19

On 19 July 2018, as part of World Youth Skill Day, a photography Competition was conducted on the topic Campus Frames.

On 5th September, Teacher's Day celebration was organized in the auditorium with various cultural programs and a startup project Canteen Network by Sri Amal Shaji of Bharat Mata College, was inaugurated by the Principal

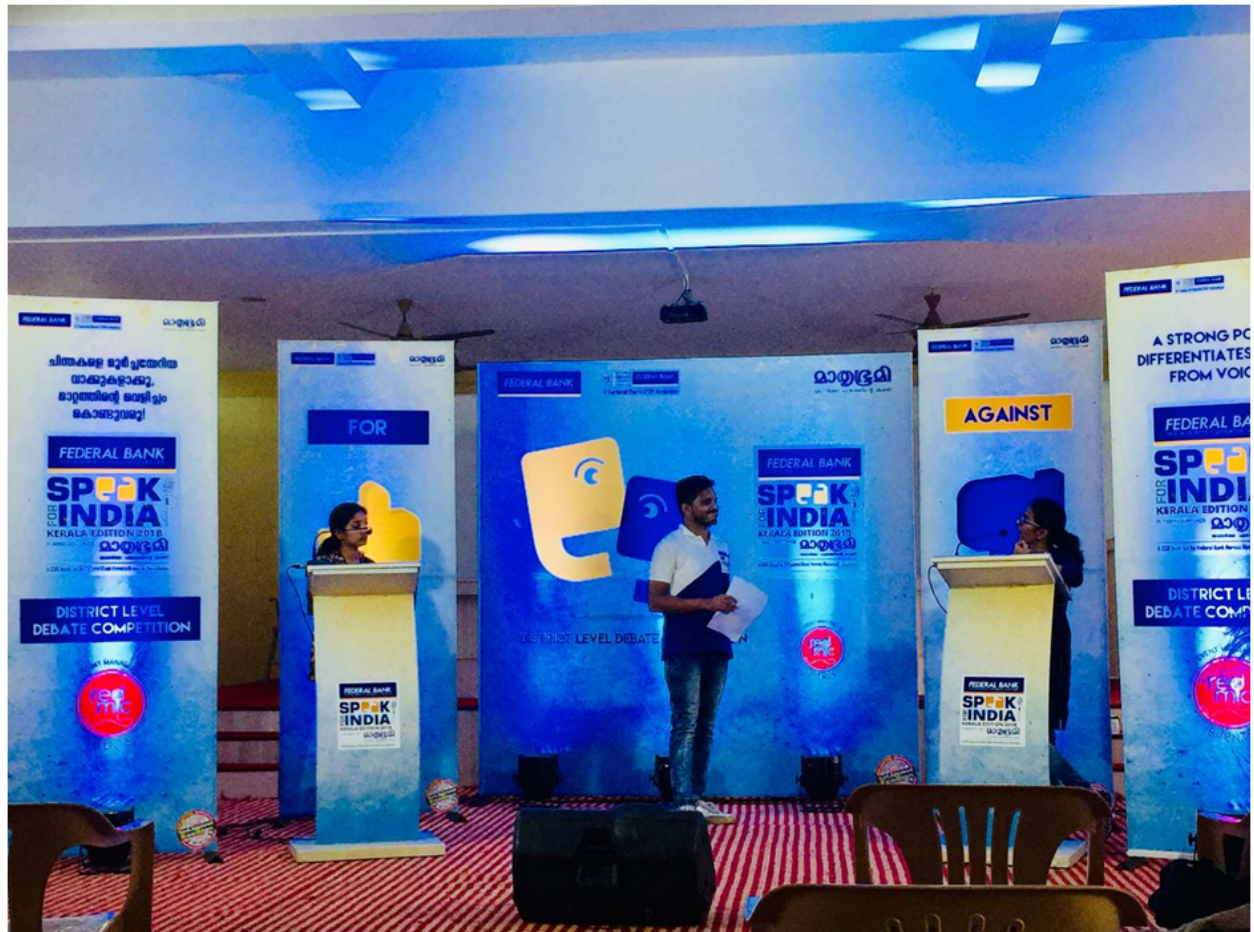

On 15th September, International Day of democracy was observed and Sri Vincent P J, Press Secretary, to the speaker of Kerala delivered the keynote address on the significance of protecting the hard won independence in the extremely communal scenario around us. Students also presented various cultural programmes related to democracy and Indian independence.

The college became a host for a Kalajadha, performed by the representatives of Calicut University Student's Union on 12th October.

104.8 Club FM, in connection with World Student's Day, organized 'Speak for India' contest on 15th October. Foumiya from 1st History got the 'Best Debator' title at the end of the contest

The college union organized an ethnic day (Pakida) for the students on 7th November. The students celebrated the day with a lot of cultural programmes. The Pain & Palliative Unit arranged an exhibition and set up food stalls

12. A house-wise Sevens Football Tournament was conducted on 29th November which was inaugurated and kickstarted by our principal Dr Sr Ashmitha. Students of all the departments were divided into houses which gave them a lot of opportunities to mingle with the students of other departments. This event which was organized by the union to promote physical fitness was a stress buster too during the hectic academic schedule.

15. Sports Day was organized by the union in the month of March. Dept of Physical Education coordinated all the events. Various events for teaching and non-teaching staff made the day exciting for one and all.

Providence College teams shine in quiz competition

STAFF REPORTER
KOZHIKODE

A team comprising Akhila S. and Sreenan-da M. of Providence Women's College, Koz-hikide, has bagged the first prize in the third pre-quarter of Jogo Bonito, the intercollegiate quiz tournament. The competition was organised under the aegis of Q4Quizzing.com.

Teams comprising Shruthi M. and Nan-dana N.S., Athira Krishnan and Aseesa Begum, and Athira Das and Hima C.M. from the same college bagged the second, third and fourth prizes respectively.

Qualified for next level

The team of Government Law College, Kozhikode, comprising Unnimaya and Musthin bagged the fifth prize.

All the five teams qualified for the next level of competition.
